

ABUSE OR NEGLECT, SUSPICION OF

ADMINISTRATIVE 1.1

I. COMMUNICATION

All EMS personnel shall patch to a medical direction authority when an individual is suspected of having been, or being at risk for physical abuse, exploitation or neglect (A.R.S. 13-3620 (A & B)). Suspicion may be based on physical evidence, or based upon behaviors which provide reasonable belief that an individual may have been or may become a victim.

II. PROCEDURE

All suspected cases of abuse, exploitation, or neglect are to be reported to Law Enforcement, Adult or Child Protective Services.

- A. Medical direction authority or law enforcement will provide guidance to EMS personnel regarding the need for further hospital evaluation. This may include "hold" orders to protect the vulnerable adult or child in need of treatment and protection.
- B. If the EMS provider suspects that an individual is a victim of abuse, neglect or exploitation, the provider will:
  - 1. Contact medical direction as stated above
  - 2. Make a report to local law enforcement providing all pertinent medical reports/information.
  - 3. Contact local Adult or Child Protective Services
  - 4. Document on the first care form all assessment findings, any orders received, case numbers (if available) from local law enforcement agencies and Adult or Child Protective Services.
  - 5. Complete the Suspicion of Abuse or Neglect Report
- C. If the individual or caregiver is refusing treatment and transport, the medical direction authority shall be notified prior to clearing the scene. The EMS provider will document the name of the person accepting responsibility for the individual.
